PROCEEDINGS

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

The Ninety-Third Annual Session of the Wake Baptist Association and the Forty-First Annual Session of the Woman's Auxiliary convened with the Macedonia Baptist Church, near Wake Forest, North Carolina. As the Messengers gathered, we noted the marked improvements which had recently been made by this pastor and congregation. A pastor's study and Choir room had been constructed, and new siding had been installed on the exterior. The interior had been freshly painted. Everything seemed to have been in order for our arrival.

Deacon Willie McClain led in singing, "I Need Thee Every Hour" followed by "Amazing Grace" led by the congregation. Reverend A. A. Anderson came forward and centered his message around our theme, "Evangelism in the Home Community." The speaker said, "an evangelist is one who carries or teaches religious truth. These religious and Christian ideas must first start in the home, then the church, community and the world." The speaker said also, "the church must have the spirit of an evangelist, that is to want to help others."

The welcome remarks were made by the pastor, the Reverend B. V. Alston. He said the church as well as the community had been expecting and planning for the Ninety-Third Session of the Association. From the changes which had been made around the church and grounds, the Welcome Mat was out for our comfort.

The response was made in behalf of the Association by the Reverend J. A. Barnes of New Liberty Baptist Church. He stated that after such a sincere welcome we all feel like brothers and sisters in Christ.

After the singing of several selections, Reverend Barnes presented the Reverend James Avery to preach the Associational sermon. The speaker came forward, and after brief remarks announced his text from Matthew 6:9 "After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven." His theme was "Our Father." The speaker called our attention to the fact that his subject was in the plural form OUR instead of MY Father. We are all God's Children; we are all brothers and sisters. The medium by which and through, which we approach God is Jesus Christ. We can not believe in the Universality of the Fatherhood of God our Father and live selfishly. As the sun in the universe shines on every one, so God our Father loves every one.

Reverend Barnes led in singing "I'll pray for You and You Pray for Me." Several other selections were sung by the congregation, "Old Time Religion," "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross." The Reverend B. H. Closs offered the prayer.

The Morning's offering was lifted by Deacons Perry and Pitts, after which the Association adjourned for dinner.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon Session reconvened with the Woman's Auxiliary in charge, devotionals led by Miss Pocahontas Dunn and Mrs. Corinna Dunn. After several selections, "The Old Time Religion" and "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross." Mrs. Mammie Perry, president of the Auxiliary, delivered her Annual Address. She stated that Christians were not saved merely to be saved, but were saved to help others. We are to bring comfort and salvation to others.

The time had arrived for our Moderator — The Reverend George S. Stokes — to deliver his Annual Message. After some preliminary remarks, Reverend Stokes praised, the pastor and the good people of Macedonia Baptist Church for the excellent work they had done in modernizing the church plant.

Reverend Stokes then went on to discuss the Place of the Church in Evangelism. He said in the job of Evangelism, each and every Christian must turn the search light on ourselves. What have we done as Christians for the Cause of Evangelism? How many souls have we led to the Master? Our Churches must be fully organized and we must have consecrated leaders to do this great job. As Christians, said the speaker, "We must teach them the Church Covenant so we can carry out our responsibility for missions, and for the poor."

Our Moderator delivered a very good address after which "Blessed Assurance," was sung by the Congregation. A motion was made by Mrs. E. M. Kelly that the Moderator's Address be accepted and the content be made available to the several churches. A substitute motion prevailed that the Moderator's Address be placed in the hands of a special committee for that purpose.

Doctor O. L. Sherrill, our Executive Secretary from the General Baptist State Convention brought Greetings from that body.

The Report of our Treasurer, Mr. G. L. Laws, was the next item of business. The Report was received along with the Report of the Auditor, the Reverend A. A. Anderson.

The Association proceeded with its Organization. The Committee's report was adopted (See Reports). A motion prevailed and was adopted that Wednesday afternoon be given over to the Women's Auxiliary so their work may be expanded.

Benediction was pronounced by Reverend James Avery.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

"Draw Me Nearer" was the opening selection on Thursday morning of the Association led by Brother McClain and Sister Mary Crenshaw. A few minutes were given to the association for expressions from the various delegates. Deacon A. J. Clemon and J. A. Watson of Gethsemane; Deacon C. V. King and Sister Bessie Leathers of Baptist Grove. This church had erected a new edifice under the leadership of Reverend W. A. Perry. Expressions were made by Sister Chavis of Bethlehem.

At this time Moderator Stokes asked Mrs. E. M. Kelly, the Minister of Music of the First Baptist Church in Raleigh to assemble an Associational Choir for the occasion. The choir sang, "If Jesus goes with Me." Doctor Moses Delaney was presented to the body by our Moderator. He made brief introductory remarks, stating that he was grateful for what the Association had done to aid "In-Service Ministers." The Class meets each Tuesday evening and the work was progressing nicely. He chose the Theme of the Association: "Evangelism in the Home Community." The speaker stated that oftentimes it is easier to do evangelism in the foreign field than in the home, but we are commanded by our Lord to go "rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matthew 10:6. We may get a negligible response from "Home Folks." Dr. Delaney stated that the task of evangelism is "winning people to make a commitment to Christ." Again said the speaker, "It is the deepening of those commitmeants in persons which have already been made. It may be true that we have more professing Christians in the world than ever before, but this does not mean that we have more genuine Christians. Our task may be difficult, but Christ came into the world to reconcile the world unto himself.'"

Dr. Delaney pointed out further that these are troubled times in which we are living. This is reflected in the world as well as at home. Our times and needs necessitate evangelism. "We sometimes make this error," said the speaker. "We feel that the work of evangelism is left to the ministers, but every disciple is to bear witness of our Lord. We are in great need of courageous and dedicated witnesses for Christ," said the speaker. All who heard the sermon spoke of the great message delivered by our guest.

After the sermon the Reverend A. M. Wiggins offered the prayer, after which the choir sang beautifully, "Oh How Sweet to Trust in Jesus." And an offering of $43.62 was raised.

It was requested by the officers of the Wake Baptist Sunday School that one of the features presented at their annual Convention at Oak City Baptist Church be presented in the Association. This was granted, this special feature was a panel presented by Mrs. Ruth Morgan, Mrs. M. N. Perry, Mrs. Thomas Giles and Reverend C. C. Jones, Moderator. Mrs. Perry pointed out some of the misgivings of the Sunday School; 1,

The Sunday School should not feel that it is part of the Church. 2. The members of the church should not feel that it is not necessary to attend and support the Sunday School for Christian study. 3. The Sunday School is teaching in a real way. The Bible is the source book. 4. A Sunday School is the place to display one's knowledge. 5. It is not a place to throw stones. 6. It is not the place to raise money.

On the positive side the speaker said the Sunday School provides the right equipment and facilities for all age levels.

Mrs. Giles pointed out that it is the duty of the church to elect the officers and teachers of the Sunday School. An officer should serve by the year and, if he does not prove himself worthy, the church should not re-elect him. The church should provide a proper meeting place for the Sunday School. There should be one central treasurer. A monthly report should be made to the church concerning the condition of the school. The panel on the Sunday School was very informative; it will help all those who listened to it.

Next to claim our attention was a report of the Committee on the Moderator's Address. The Report is as follows: (See copy enclosed). The closing prayer was given by Dr. Delaney.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The devotionals for this session were led by Deacons R. B. Rayford and M. D. Haywood.

The Reverend R. Irving Boone, Minister of Central Baptist Church, Wilmington, North Carolina, was presented to the body. He came forward and made remarks on behalf of our Baptist School, Shaw University. He spoke on behalf of the Alumni Dinner, scheduled for Founder's Day of this year.

A motion prevailed that Report of the Resolution Committee be adopted with the exception of that section which deals with the Constitution. (See Report).

It was also moved and met with a second that a new committee on the Constitution be appointed and that this committee be represented with members from all departments of the Association such as Sunday School Convention, Woman's Auxiliary and The Ministers' and Deacons' Union.

It was also motioned that the Association go on record as taking A Life Membership in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. $50.00 was to be applied immediately and the balance as it falls due.

A motion was made and the same was properly seconded that the motion on organization be reconsidered and that Brother Garrett Laws name be inserted again for Treasurer. The motion was passed, 24-1.

The Committee on Obituary was called to make its report.

The following persons of this Association have gone to their rest since our last meeting; (See Report). The Obituary Prayer was offered by the Reverend T. A. Watkins, while the audience sang "Nearer My God to Thee."

Reverend Watkins presented Dr. C. E. Askew to preach the closing sermon. Dr. Askew came forward and in his usual manner announced his text from Revelation 1:16, "And he had in his right hand seven stars."

The speaker emphasized the importance of "Right Hand," "Seven Stars," "Angels," and "Candlestick." Dr. Askew pointed out the meaning of each figure in relationship to Jesus Christ. As usual, Dr. Askew preached a very excellent sermon. The audience joined in singing, "At The Cross." An offering was lifted in the amount of $20.35.

A motion prevailed that a rising vote of thanks be extended to the pastor and good people of Macedonia Baptist Church for the fine way which we had been entertained.

The Association closed to meet in its Semi-Annual Session at Shaw University, March 27, 1960, and the Annual Session at Riley Hill, August 17, 18, 1960.

Reports were made by Mrs. Mollie Dunston for New Bern-Rolesville, Mrs. Sadie Finch for First Baptist-Middlesex.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON — JOINT SESSION

After a brief devotional, a pageant, "Foot Steps Toward a Better Auxiliary," was presented. The following steps were outlined: Cooperation, Responsibility, Loyalty, Perservation, Prayer, Love, Sincerity, Friendship, and Fellowship. Participants were: Mrs. Mattie Jones, Mrs. Ada Perry, Mrs. Lucille Parks and Mrs. Lula Lucas.

Following the pageant, a paper, "A Christian Home," was read by Mrs. Bessie Perry.

The evening sermon was delivered by the Reverend F. J. Body, pastor of the Mt. Bright Church, Hillsboro, North Carolina.

Reverend Body's subject was taken from the Pentecostal experience

His subject was "Upstairs Power" with no "Downstairs Proof." "Christianity has been acclaimed but not applied." Wakefield Baptist Church Choir sang "A Little Talk With Jesus." The evening offering was lifted by Deacons Whitted and Young, the amount was $14.24.

Thursday's Session was united with the Association.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE WAKE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION MID-YEAR SESSION

The Mid-Year Session of the Wake Baptist Association was held on the campus of Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina. The Sunday School Hour was conducted by the students at the University.

Mrs. Mamie Perry presided over the Auxiliary hour. There were several selections by the congregation after which Miss Mildred McTyre was presented to the association. She came before the body and discussed the Theme, "Strengthening the Church through Christian Education." In our church program we must have definite goals and objectives, we must work towards those objectives, we must evaluate our work from time to time," she advised.

The Music was furnished by the Friendship Chapel Baptist Church Senior Choir, Wake Forest, North Carolina. After Miss McTyre's Address, the choir sang, "Take My Life and Let It Be," and "Send Out the Light." Our speaker gave the Association a very inspiring address. This ended the Woman's Auxiliary Hour.

ASSOCIATION HOUR

The services continued with the Friendship Choir in charge and Moderator Stokes presiding. At this time, Doctor Moses Delaney of the University gave words of welcome on behalf of the University. He said, "It was wholesome to have the University to share love, hope and fellowship of the Association."

Dr. Delaney read the scripture while Reverend Cal Morgan, Amanda Baptist Church, brought us the message. His Theme was "This One Thing I Do." The Text, Phil. 3:13-14. Reverend Walton emphasized the following points: Christians must have definite purposes, they must have sound teachings. The church must speak out against the evil of our day. "Amazing Grace," was the selection following the sermon.

The mid-Year Session is always centered around our Baptist School. The offering for this worthy objective was set forth by Deacons R. B. Rayford and Garrett Laws.
